

Certificate of Cancellation of a Foreign Name Registration (FNR)

The registration of a corporate name by a foreign corporation is effective until the close of the calendar year in which the application for registration was filed. To cancel a foreign name registration before the close of the calendar year, you may fill out this form, and submit for filing.

- There is no filing fee, however, a separate, non-refundable $15 service fee must be included, if you drop off the completed form.

Important! If your intent is to surrender the rights of a qualified foreign corporation that is transacting intrastate business in California, you must file a Certificate of Surrender of Right To Transact Intrastate Business as required by California Corporations Code section 2112. To get a Certificate of Surrender form, go to www.sos.ca.gov/business-programs/business-entities/forms.
