

Instructions for Completing the Application for Registration of a Foreign Limited Partnership (Form LP-5)

To qualify a limited partnership (LP) from another state, country, or other place of origin (foreign LP) to transact intrastate business in California, you must file an Application for Registration of a Foreign Limited Partnership (Form LP-5) with the California Secretary of State.

- Before submitting the completed form, you should consult with a private attorney for advice about your specific business needs and whether additional provisions for the foreign LP are needed.
