

Frequently Used Cannabis Business Entity Filing Forms

Below are common forms that need to be filed with the California Secretary of State to create, change or update your Business Entity. If you do not see the form you are looking for a complete list of forms is available on our bizfile California Portal at bizfile.sos.ca.gov under Forms and Filing Tips.

The forms below are categorized according to business entity type. If you are unsure about which business entity type best fits the needs of your business, you may wish to review our Starting a Business – Entity Types page for a brief overview of the various business structures available. Once you have determined which business structure best fits your needs, you can then review the common forms or samples associated with that entity type in the table below.

Regardless of how you choose to structure your business, before filing, you are encouraged to use the Starting a New Cannabis Business Checklist located at cannabizfile.sos.ca.gov. There are many State and Local requirements for starting a cannabis business in California.

Reminder: All Filings and Contents are Available to the Public

Filings and information contained in filings you submit to the Secretary of State are public record, including names, phone numbers, email addresses, and mailing and street addresses, except as provided in statutes. To avoid issues related to identity theft you should avoid using and submitting confidential information in public filings unless specifically required by statute.

The public can view information and download documents contained in the Secretary of State's electronic records using digital search tools and information posted on the Secretary of State's website. Also, please note that individuals and private companies use this public information to create third party access to these records.

For more information about privacy, please consult our FAQs Personal Information in Public Filings. More information on accessing public records is available through the Secretary of State's Guidelines for Access to Public Records.
