

Instructions for Completing the Articles of Incorporation of a Common Interest Development Association (Form ARTS-CID)

To form a nonprofit mutual benefit common interest development association, you must file Articles of Incorporation with the California Secretary of State.

- Form ARTS-CID has been created for ease in filing, however, you can compose your own document, provided it meets statutory requirements.
- Before submitting the completed form, you should consult with a private attorney for advice about your specific business needs and whether additional article provisions for the association are needed.
- Please note, once filed, all information contained within this form (including addresses) is a public record and is accessible by the general public.

What is a Common Interest Development?

A common interest development means any of the following:

- a. A community apartment project. (California Civil Code section 4105.)
- b. A condominium project. (California Civil Code sections 4125 and 6542.)
- c. A planned development. (California Civil Code sections 4175 and 6562.)
- d. A stock cooperative. (California Civil Code sections 4190 and 6566.)

(California Civil Code sections 4100 and 6534.) Note: A commercial and industrial development cannot be a community apartment project.

Important Additional Steps to Obtain Tax Exemption and Avoid Paying the Minimum $800 Annual Tax:

- California nonprofit corporations are not automatically exempt from paying California franchise tax or income tax each year. Most corporations must pay a minimum tax of $800 to the California Franchise Tax Board (FTB) each year. (California Revenue and Taxation Code section 23153.)
- A separate Exemption Application (Form FTB 3500) is required in order to obtain tax exempt status in California. For more information, go to <https://www.ftb.ca.gov/businesses/Exempt-organizations>.
- For information regarding FTB forms and publications visit their website at <https://www.ftb.ca.gov> or contact the FTB at (800) 852-5711 (from within the U.S.) or (916) 845-6500 (from outside the U.S.).
